The Truth About The Holocaust Myth Or Fact

YOU SHALL RETURN

In the days when slavery existed, the Torah decreed that there must come a time when every man goes free. Even those who resold themselves after six years of servitude, and had their ears pierced for voluntary enslavement, could not remain beyond the time of the Jubilee.

וְקִדַּשְׁתֶּם אֶת שְׁנַת הַחֲמִישִׁים שָׁנָה וְקִרְאתֶם דְּרוֹר בְּאַרְץ
לְכָל-יֹשְׁבֶיהָ יוֹבֵל הוּא תִּהְיֶה לָכֶם

(Ve-kidashtem et shenat ha-ḥamishim shanah u-keratem deror ba-arez le-khol yoshveha yovel hi tihyeh lakhem)

"And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty
throughout the land unto all the inhabitants thereof:"

[Leviticus 25:10]

These are the words chosen to be inscribed on the Liberty Bell. It is in the Jubilee year that "ye shall return every man unto his possession and ye shall return every man unto his family."

The Hebrew word for "ye shall return," תשובו (TaShuVU), seems to be spelled incorrectly. Grammatically it requires another ו (vav). It ought to read תשובו (TaShUVU).

Why is it lacking the letter ו (vav), which stands for 6? תשוב (without the "vav") is a prediction to the Jewish people of ultimate return to their national homeland. תשוב in numbers adds up to 708: ת (tav) = 400, ש (shin) = 300, ב (vet) = 2, ו (vav) = 6. When we write the year, we ignore the millennia. In 1948 on the secular calendar, we witnessed the miracle of Jewish return to Israel. On the Hebrew calendar it was the year 5708. That was the year pre-

The Truth About The Holocaust Myth Or Fact

[Quote 1] Jewish prophecies in the Torah require that 6 million Jews must "vanish" before the state of Israel can be formed.

"You shall return minus 6 million."

That's why Tom Segev, an Israeli historian, declared that the "6 million" is an attempt to transform the Holocaust story into state religion.

Those six million, according to prophecy, had to disappear in "burning ovens", which the judicial version of the Holocaust now authenticates.

As a matter of fact, Robert B. Goldmann writes: ". . . without the Holocaust, there would be no Jewish State."

A simple consequence: Given six million Jews gassed at Auschwitz who ended up in the "burning ovens" (the Greek word holocaust means burned offerings), therefore, the prophecies have now been "fulfilled" and Israel can become a "legitimate state".

(There is only one problem! The Germans did not build the Oven Chambers at Auschwitz, the Russian's did after the War, so by their own deception & lies they catch themselves out)

Conclusion

[Quote 2] Regarding the 'six million' number you should know the following: In the Hebrew text of the Torah prophecies, one can read, "you shall return".

In the text the letter "V" or "VAU" is absent, as Hebrew does not have any numbers; the letter V stands for the number 6.

Ben Weintraub, a religious scientist, learned from rabbis that the meaning of the missing letter means the number is '6 million'. The prophesy then reads you will return, but with 6 million less.

See Ben Weintraub: "The Holocaust Dogma of Judaism", Cosmo Publishing, Washington 1995, page 3. The missing 6 million must be so before the Jews can return to the Promised Land. Jahweh sees this as a cleaning of the souls of the sinful people. The Jews must, on the return to the Promised Land, be clean -- the cleaning shall be done in burning stokes.

The Truth About The Holocaust Myth Or Fact

Prefix

Welcomed to The OzBoy File – The Truth About The Holocaust Myth Or Fact, since our first book on this subject allot more research has been conducted into this subject and this evidence proves beyond a doubt the numbers written down at the Nuremberg Trials was just Sworn Testimony by people and hearsay with NO solid evidence and proof actually 6 Million Jews died at the hands of the Nazis.

Its 2011 and in most Western Countries Jewish Groups have subverted Governments, Laws and Courts and twisted everything about declaring anybody who questions, research or speaks out about the Holocaust and doubts the Official figure forced down our throats that died at the hand of the Germans.

That you are partaking in Hate Speech against Jews?

Excuse You!

Who said anything about hating Jews?

Who said anything about their religion?

Who said anything about how they dress?

Who said anything about what they eat?

All we are doing is trying to get to the bottom of the issue and learn the truth, we want to know the truth, and that isn't the truth forced down our throats we are told to believe, it's the truth or close to it of what really happen.

Its true friends some Zionist Groups have subverted Western Governments, Laws and Courts so much you can be arrested and tried – sent to jail for up to 5 years, just for questioning the Official story.

“The Truth Does Not Need Laws – Courts – Prisons To be Imposed Upon People, For Surely If It Is The Truth It Will Stand Up To Any Examination”

“But If The Truth Being Pushed Is Lies, Then You Will Need Laws – Courts – Prisons To Be Imposed Upon People To Shut Them Up”

You may ask why does knowing the real truth about the Holocaust matter?

2 Reasons I will give straight from the top of my head.

- 1) There is no question that the Nazis were evil people as anyone who marches armed into another's lands to steal them are evil, whether it be Iraq or Palestine. And there is no question that Germany had slave labor camps. And there is no question that a great many people died in those camps.

What begs examination is whether the inmates at those camps died of the typhoid epidemics that swept across Germany towards the end of the war, or whether there was a deliberate program of extermination.

The modern nation of Israel owes its very existence to the latter version of events. Here you had the entire world sacrificing much blood and treasure on the principle that one nation did not have the right to simply grab the land belonging to another people, and you had the founders of Israel seeking the world's permission to do exactly that in Palestine. Without a propaganda device to persuade the world that Israel is allowed to do to Palestine what Germany could not be allowed to do to France, Israel would not exist. So there is no question that motive existed to amplify the events of WW2 in a way that supported the creation of Israel.

In over 60 years NO Evidence & NO Proof has been presented the Germans and Nazi's had any plans for Mass Extermination of all the Jews in Germany

Nobody has ever found any written plans that the Germans had for the extermination of Jews, in recent years there has been Fake Documents created in Israel been presented in the mainstream to prove the Germans had plans.

But these Fake Plans have been debunked, In any case if the Holocaust is real why the need to created Fake Plans?

You only create Fake Plans to help preserve a Fake – False story.

2) A Few Questions

- Why should Jews need or want a country of their own for?
- Have they been expelled or kicked out of any country about the World for the last 60 years?
- Isn't that Hateful to the rest of Humanity that Jews can go and steal somebody else land and declare it only for Jews to live in and murder – expel the native population from their own homes and birth place.

- Remember all of the Jews now settling in Israel and that have settled there have migrated there from Germany, Russia, Poland, America, France, Holland and so forth, they were not born there like the native Palestinians were.
- Judaism is a religion (NOT A RACE) like they try and declare, so even if they try and declare Jews lived in that part of the land Palestine many years ago descendant of the rightful land owners is passed on by birth right, not by religion.

So even if Jews lived on that land many hundreds and thousands of years ago, to claim you have some right of ownership over that land now because Jews that lived there then argument fails, because they the modern day Jew have NOT proven their family roots and ties to the land via birth right of being born there.

I refer to Australia, and we all know the history of Australian with white settlement by the British they killed millions of Native Aborigines.

In trying to correct the wrong done to the Aboriginal Natives in Australia, the Government has established the Native Titles Act, which means Aboriginal Tribes, can put in a claim for Crown Lands to be returned to them.

The land is not just handed back based upon somebody saying Oh our people use to live here many years ago, they must prove with evidence they the people claiming Title-ship over that land have roots, traceable roots back to having lived on that land.

When we consider what has been going on over in Palestine these Jews professing to have ties and ownership on the lands there have never had their claims tested and proven, just some Jewish Group goes on the propaganda trip professing to have ties and if anybody disagrees with them.

- They try and Black Mail you
- They try and kill you
- They declare you a Muslim or Muslim lover
- They create all these stories how Muslims helped Hitler kill the Jews in WW11

Lastly here is one example of how these people try and push the Holocaust Jewish propaganda, as the ludicrous bone pictures, some of which have been established as having been taken during World War I, become our daily fare.

The Public Broadcasting System, financed with taxpayers funds, recently showed a series of "holocaust" films, each more incredible than the last.

In one, an elderly Jewess returns to Auschwitz, where she claims to have been incarcerated forty years age.

"It voss a death camp?" she exclaims.

She then stated that she remained there for four years, although the Germans "killed everybody every day."

She was then asked how she has survived.

"I hid in the camp," she explained, "but I had nothing to eat for three years."

Question if she had nothing to eat for 3 years how did she live?
You need Food & Water daily to live.

Question how did she bath.

So just in asking two logical questions once again we prove another person proclaiming to be a Holocaust survivor a Fake.

This is FRAUD down right Fraud to claim to be something your not and then into the bargain hold your hand out for Holocaust money you're NOT entitled to.

Introduction

A Factual Appraisal Of The 'Holocaust' By The Red Cross

The Jews And The Concentration Camps: No Evidence Of Genocide

There is one survey of the Jewish question in Europe during World War Two and the conditions of Germany's concentration camps which is almost unique in its honesty and objectivity, the three-volume Report of the International Committee of the Red Cross on its Activities during the Second World War, Geneva, 1948.

This comprehensive account from an entirely neutral source incorporated and expanded the findings of two previous works: Documents sur l'activité du CICR en faveur des civils détenus dans les camps de concentration en Allemagne 1939-1945 (Geneva, 1946), and Inter Arma Caritas: the Work of the ICRC during the Second World War (Geneva, 1947).

The team of authors, headed by Frédéric Siordet, explained in the opening pages of the Report that their object, in the tradition of the Red Cross, had been strict political neutrality, and herein lies its great value.

The ICRC successfully applied the 1929 Geneva military convention in order to gain access to civilian internees held in Central and Western Europe by the Germany authorities.

By contrast, the ICRC was unable to gain any access to the Soviet Union, which had failed to ratify the Convention.

The millions of civilian and military internees held in the USSR, whose conditions were known to be by far the worst, were completely cut off from any international contact or supervision.

The Red Cross Report is of value in that it first clarifies the legitimate circumstances under which Jews were detained in concentration camps, i.e. as enemy aliens.

In describing the two categories of civilian internees, the Report distinguishes the second type as "Civilians deported on administrative grounds (in German, "Schutzhäftlinge"), who were arrested for political or racial motives because their presence was considered a danger to the State or the occupation forces" (Vol. 111, p. 73).

These persons, it continues, "were placed on the same footing as persons arrested or imprisoned under common law for security reasons." (P.74).

The Report admits that the Germans were at first reluctant to permit supervision by the Red Cross of people detained on grounds relating to security, but by the latter part of 1942, the ICRC obtained important concessions from Germany.

They were permitted to distribute food parcels to major concentration camps in Germany from August 1942, and "from February 1943 onwards this concession was extended to all other camps and prisons" (Vol. 111, p. 78).

The ICRC soon established contact with camp commandants and launched a food relief program which continued to function until the last months of 1945, letters of thanks for which came pouring in from Jewish internees.

Red Cross Recipients Were Jews

The Report states that "As many as 9,000 parcels were packed daily.

From the autumn of 1943 until May 1945, about 1,112,000 parcels with a total weight of 4,500 tons were sent off to the concentration camps" (Vol. III, p. 80).

In addition to food, these contained clothing and pharmaceutical supplies.

"Parcels were sent to Dachau, Buchenwald, Sangerhausen, Sachsenhausen, Oranienburg, Flossenbürg, Landsberg-am-Lech, Flöha, Ravensbrück, Hamburg-Neuengamme, Mauthausen, Theresienstadt, Auschwitz, Bergen-Belsen, to camps near Vienna and in Central and Southern Germany.

The principal recipients were Belgians, Dutch, French, Greeks, Italians, Norwegians, Poles and stateless Jews" (Vol. III, p. 83).

In the course of the war, "The Committee was in a position to transfer and distribute in the form of relief supplies over twenty million Swiss francs collected by Jewish welfare organizations throughout the world, in particular by the American Joint Distribution Committee of New York" (Vol. I, p. 644).

This latter organization was permitted by the German Government to maintain offices in Berlin until the American entry into the war.

The ICRC complained that obstruction of their vast relief operation for Jewish internees came not from the Germans but from the tight allied blockade of Europe.

Most of their purchases of relief food were made in Rumania, Hungary and Slovakia.

The ICRC had special praise for the liberal conditions which prevailed at Theresienstadt up to the time of their last visits there in April 1945.

This camp, "where there were about 40,000 Jews deported from various countries was a relatively privileged ghetto" (Vol. III, p. 75).

According to the Report, "The Committee's delegates were able to visit the camp at Theresienstadt (Terezin) which was used exclusively for Jews and was governed by special conditions.

From information gathered by the Committee, this camp had been started as an experiment by certain leaders of the Reich ...

These men wished to give the Jews the means of setting up a communal life in a town under their own administration and possessing almost complete autonomy . . . two delegates were able to visit the camp on April 6th, 1945.

They confirmed the favourable impression gained on the first visit" (Vol. I, p. 642).

The ICRC also had praise for the regime of Ion Antonescu of Fascist Rumania where the Committee was able to extend special relief to 183,000 Rumanian Jews until the time of the Soviet occupation.

The aid then ceased, and the ICRC complained bitterly that it never succeeded "in sending anything whatsoever to Russia" (Vol. II, p. 62).

The same situation applied to many of the German camps after their "liberation" by the Russians.

The ICRC received a voluminous flow of mail from Auschwitz until the period of the Soviet occupation, when many of the internees were evacuated westward.

But the efforts of the Red Cross to send relief to internees remaining at Auschwitz under Soviet control were futile.

However, food parcels continued to be sent to former Auschwitz inmates transferred west to such camps as Buchenwald and Oranienburg.

No Evidence Of Genocide

One of the most important aspects of the Red Cross Report is that it clarifies the true cause of those deaths that undoubtedly occurred in the camps toward the end of the war.

Says the Report: "In the chaotic condition of Germany after the invasion during the final months of the war, the camps received no food supplies at all and starvation claimed an increasing number of victims.

Itself alarmed by this situation, the German Government at last informed the ICRC on February 1st, 1945 ...

In March 1945, discussions between the President of the ICRC and General of the S.S. Kaltenbrunner gave even more decisive results.

Relief could henceforth be distributed by the ICRC, and one delegate was authorized to stay in each camp..." (Vol. III, p. 83).

Clearly, the German authorities were at pains to relieve the dire situation as far as they were able.

The Red Cross is quite explicit in stating that food supplies ceased at this time due to the Allied bombing of German transportation, and in the interests of interned Jews they had protested on March 15th, 1944 against "the barbarous aerial warfare of the Allies" (Inter Arma Caritas, p. 78).

By October 2nd, 1944, the ICRC warned the German Foreign Office of the impending collapse of the German transportation system, declaring that starvation conditions for people throughout Germany were becoming inevitable.

In dealing with this comprehensive, three-volume Report, it is important to stress that the delegates of the International Red Cross found no evidence whatever at the camps in Axis occupied Europe of a deliberate policy to exterminate the Jews.

In all its 1,600 pages the Report does not even mention such a thing as a gas chamber.

It admits that Jews, like many other wartime nationalities, suffered rigors and privations, but its complete silence on the subject of planned extermination is ample refutation of the Six Million legends.

Like the Vatican representatives with whom they worked, the Red Cross found itself unable to indulge in the irresponsible charges of genocide, which had become the order of the day.

So far as the genuine mortality rate is concerned, the Report points out that most of the Jewish doctors from the camps were being used to combat typhus on the eastern front, so that they were unavailable when the typhus epidemics of 1945 broke out in the camps (Vol. I, p. 204 ff)

Incidentally, it is frequently claimed that mass executions were carried out in gas chambers cunningly disguised as shower facilities.

Again the Report makes nonsense of this allegation.

"Not only the washing places, but installations for baths, showers and laundry were inspected by the delegates.

They had often to take action to have fixtures made less primitive, and to get them repaired or enlarged" (Vol. III, p. 594).

Not All Were Interned

Volume III of the Red Cross Report, Chapter 3 (I. Jewish Civilian Population) deals with the "aid given to the Jewish section of the free population," and this chapter makes it quite plain that by no means all of the European Jews were placed in internment camps, but remained, subject to certain restrictions, as part of the free civilian population.

This conflicts directly with the "thoroughness" of the supposed "extermination program", and with the claim in the forged Höss memoirs that Eichmann was obsessed with seizing "every single Jew he could lay his hands on."

In Slovakia, for example, where Eichmann's assistant Dieter Wisliceny was in charge, the Report states that.

"A large proportion of the Jewish minority had permission to stay in the country, and at certain periods Slovakia was looked upon as a comparative haven of refuge for Jews, especially for those coming from Poland.

Those who remained in Slovakia seem to have been in comparative safety until the end of August 1944, when a rising against the German forces took place.

While it is true that the law of May 15th, 1942 had brought about the internment of several thousand Jews, these people were held in camps where the conditions of food and lodging were tolerable, and where the internees were allowed to do paid work on terms almost equal to those of the free labor market" (Vol. I, p. 646).

Not only did large numbers of the three million or so European Jews avoid internment altogether, but the emigration of Jews continued throughout the war, generally by way of Hungary, Rumania and Turkey.

Ironically, post-war Jewish emigration from German-occupied territories was also facilitated by the Reich, as in the case of the Polish Jews who had escaped to France before its occupation.

"The Jews from Poland who, whilst in France, had obtained entrance permits to the United States were held to be American citizens by the German occupying authorities, who further agreed to recognize the validity of about three thousand passports issued to Jews by the consulates of South American countries" (Vol. I, p. 645).

As future U.S. citizens, these Jews were held at the Vittel camp in southern France for American aliens.

The emigration of European Jews from Hungary in particular proceeded during the war unhindered by the German authorities.

"Until March 1944," says the. Red Cross Report, "Jews who had the privilege of visas for Palestine were free to leave Hungary" (Vol. I, p. 648).

Even after the replacement of the Horthy Government in 1944 (following its attempted armistice with the Soviet Union) with a government more dependent on German authority, the emigration of Jews continued.

The Committee secured the pledges of both Britain and the United States "to give support by every means to the emigration of Jews from Hungary," and from the U.S. Government the ICRC received a message stating that "The Government of the United States ... now specifically repeats its assurance that arrangements will be made by it for the care of all Jews who in the present circumstances are allowed to leave" (Vol. I, p. 649).

Biedermann agreed that in the nineteen instances that "Did Six Million Really Die?" quoted from the Report of the International Committee of the Red Cross on its Activities during the Second World War and Inter Arma Caritas (this includes the above material), it did so accurately.

A quote from Charles Biedermann (a delegate of the International Committee of the Red Cross and Director of the Red Cross' International Tracing Service) under oath at the Zündel Trial (February 9, 10, 11 and 12, 1988).

The above is chapter nine from the book "Did Six Million Really Die?"

<http://www.vancouver.indymedia.org/news/2004/03/122056.php>

From the above account, it would appear that those in charge of the barbarous Allied civilian bombing of Germany, thus attacking the civilian infrastructure.

(Which is a war crime), are primarily responsible for the murder of hundreds of thousands of gays, gypsies, political dissidents, Jews, etc. in the concentration camps of wartime Germany due to disease and starvation.

By 1944, most of Germany was already at or near starvation, and disease among the civilian population was a severe problem.

Transportation and the food supply were in tatters from the unceasing bombing of the US and UK on German civilian targets and infrastructure.

Read some biographies of Germans who survived the war.

Many Germans died of disease...typhus was very common.

One account of a young boy about age 12 at the time described how he was so malnourished he became sickly and then infected with typhus.

He was put in a hospital ward with dozens of other typhus victims.

Incredibly, he described how a cart with a gas bottle was wheeled into the ward and zyklon gas was actually turned released in an effort to kill all lice, etc, while all the patients were in their beds.

Oh Me!

Oh My!

Its any wonder these Zionist Groups around the World work tooth and nail to stop the real truth from coming out, and jump up and down, by studying some of these Red Cross Reports you can see all the lies that have been told.

A Factual Appraisal Of The 'Holocaust' By The Red Cross

And in a book by Prof. Dr. Arno Mayer he said that between 1.2 and 1.6 million Jews died in WW11, mostly of starvation and disease of war that killed millions of "others."

Now the official International Red Cross report opened.

No wonder people are threatened for debates on the so-called holocaust.

Money, money, money.

As Dr. Norman Finkelstein, all his family died during WW11, wrote (book) - The holocaust industry.

He is one of many Jews, who are successful writers, lawyers, who write the truth. Dr. Mayer is one.

There are many others, like Dr. Alfred Lilienthal and Dr. Schlomo Sand who teach at Tel Aviv University.

Chapter 1

Holocaust, Hate Speech & Were the Germans so Stupid?

<http://vimeo.com/21508099>

Suppressing free and open discussion on any subject is as bad as telling lies, and knowingly suppressing the truth is the biggest lie of all, because it is based, not on a mistake or a genuine error, but on a deliberate intention to deceive.

Having been tortured, Rudolf Höss, who was the commander of Auschwitz from 1940 to 1943, almost certainly lied to save the lives of his wife and children.

Even if torture and duress cannot not be proven, the overwhelming reason for recognizing the utter falsity of the Höss confession is that the gassing method he described was not scientifically plausible.

Rudolf Höss's confession, extracted under torture, included descriptions of atrocities against Jews at Camp Walczak.

This may have been Höss's means of sending a message, because there was no Camp Walczak.

Or maybe the promoters of the official myth decided to create a fictional camp that nobody could locate, to forestall anyone being able to check the claimed facts of the story for themselves.

Chapter 2

After Closer Examination

After closer examination I am having serious doubts about the bodies being drawn in.

Both of these photos were taken at the same place and the same angle as you can see by the tree line.

The dead bodies lying on the ground are present in both photos

As for this image, is it a poorly drawn in dead body or does it just look like that because of an illusion of light and shadows?

During the height of the typhus epidemic when people in the camp were dropping like flies, Krema IV and V were opened to take up the burden of disposing of the dead bodies.

Unfortunately they broke down right after they opened which necessitated the burning of bodies outside on pyres.

This is what we are seeing in these photographs.

It is not proof of mass extermination and it is certainly not a secret.

This is confirmed on CODOH's website in case anyone has doubts.

It is likely that the story of Alex the Jew was a complete fabrication to surround the story of how the photos were obtained with excitement and intrigue.

It is not so hard to believe since the people who created Alex the Jew are of the same tribe as those who create stories of intrigue and excitement in Hollywood.

Exaggeration is a Jewish trait.

Bottom line, we have to dismiss any false evidence regardless of what side of the fence it is coming from if we are ever going to find the truth.

Laws against holocaust "denial" only serve to prove that much of what we know about it needs to be protected from public scrutiny simply because of all the fraudulent evidence involved and it is these very laws that should arouse suspicion in every free thinking person.

If someone forbids you to look behind the curtain, human nature and our natural curiosity is going to demand to know what they are hiding behind it.

"Carbon monoxide was supposedly used to murder two million Jews.

So where were the piles or pits of RED corpses?

The "eyewitnesses" never ever even mentioned such stunning spectacles.

An important essay

Zyklon-B and the German Delousing Chambers

Showing the nearly perfect correlation between intense RED coloring in corpses and fatal carbon monoxide poisoning is originally from Austria based on the examinations of 182 corpses of people who died from CO.

Clearly, nearly all of the evidence about the supposed deaths of more than 2 million Jews in the Reinhardt camps is absolute rubbish.

All of the "witnesses," from Kurt GERSTEIN on, lied about the most obvious kind of evidence for such claims!

It wasn't popular until the made for television movie "holocaust" came out in 1977 and was broadcast on major networks worldwide.

I remember my 7th grade (Jewish) History teacher telling us all to watch it as our homework.

I think "ROOTS" came out about the same time.

The holocaust mini series came out at the same time neo-Nazi leader Frank Collins made national headlines demanding that his Nazi group be allowed to march through Skokie Ill.

Skokie was home to a large population of Jewish holocaust survivors.

The media kept the public updated on the events nightly and along with the holocaust mini series managed to stir up a fascination with the holocaust, a sort of holocaust-mania.

They even did a parody of him and his Neo-Nazi group in the film, "The blues brothers."

It was later discovered that Frank Collins, the American Fuhrer, was actually a Jew whose real name was Cohen when he was arrested for molesting little boys and sent to prison.

He is now the editor of an archeological magazine.

And in a perfect demonstration of tribal cohesion, which can be taken with a wink and a nod towards a conspiracy, he has been completely forgiven by the tribe for his "Indiscretions" while the jilib media and Jewish organizations continuously refer to David Duke as "Ex-Klan member" and "Neo-Nazi."

Frank Cohen should have won an Oscar for his work promoting the holocaust to the American public.

Chapter 3

AS MANY AS 90% OF THOSE CLAIMING TO BE HOLOCAUST SURVIVORS MAY BE FRAUDS

Last week, 17 men were arrested in New York for defrauding Germany out of $42 million in payments to phony holocaust survivors.

Tens of thousands of American Jews had filed for pensions from Germany claiming to be concentration camp survivors.

All swore they had been in the camps, told stories about gas chambers, human skin lampshades and such but not a single one had been in a camp at all.

The state of Israel claims to have, alive today, and nearly one million holocaust survivors.

As many as 90% of these may well be, not only frauds but many could easily be former concentration camp guards themselves, far more likely than surviving death camps.

What better place to hide than Israel?

With numbers of camp survivors going up each year, we tend to forget we are talking about death camps.

There were few survivors and most of them died immediately after the war.

Those alive were found dying and couldn't be saved, and most of them weren't Jews but rather Russians, Gypsies, Communists, trade unionists and anti-Fascists.

Look at the numbers.

There were only 5.3 million Jews listed as living in Europe, outside the USSR, in 1940.

In a rough average, 12 death camps, filled to the brim with gas chambers and crematoriums ran 24 hours a day for 1000 days.

Some are said, in testimony of literally thousands, to have killed from 17,000 to 20,000 per day.

Lets use the figure, 10,000 per day times 12 camps times 1000 days.

Where do a million survivors come from?

I can see a thousand, ten thousand but not 30,000 and certainly not the 15 million necessary to justify the current number of claimed survivors according to typical actuarial tables for healthy adults of the period, those who were not starved and tortured for years.

Look at Vietnam veterans. Only 700,000 of 2.9 million survive 35 years after the war.

Something is wrong here.

STOLEN VALOR

There are laws in the United States that punish people who wear military medals they didn't earn or claim other such honors.

When veterans discover someone claiming falsely to have served in war, that individual is arrested but also publicly humiliated.

They are hunted down like dogs.

There are concentration camp survivors living in America, people who suffered incomprehensibly at the hands of the Nazis.

However, there are also, in America we now know, tens of thousands or more who claim falsely to be of the heroic numbers from that period and numbers inside Israel that are unimaginable.

Why are these people not punished?

As a Vietnam veteran, I share a common problem with others.

For 4 decades, I met veteran after veteran, many were children when the war ended, but each claims some honor tied to military service based on a movie or television show.

I have met, over the years, hundreds of such individuals, many at meetings of veteran's organizations.

I don't find it horrible or destructive but it is disturbing and I won't even remotely begin comparing service in Vietnam with the experience of a death camp.

LAST WEEK

Last week, authorities announced that those who had wrongly filed for benefits had been fooled somehow.

I can see fooling someone as to whether they had seen a television show or not but there is only one American I can think of who imagined he had been in a death camp who hadn't and that was President Ronald Reagan and he only claimed to have visited.

Reagan's error was based on dementia, not profit or gain.

Now it seems, do we have tens of thousands of people who have a single false memory, they seem to remember years of horror, incredible detail and all of it is utterly false.

There is no comparison, not with Reagan, not with Vietnam veterans, not with anyone.

Reagan's error, despite the respect he is held in and his obvious illness, was been used to defame him countless times.

His error was not only honest but done in the context of human feeling.

How many of the others are lying, not only for financial gain but also for something less wholesome?

Why then, in the name of all that is holy, did the authorities and news media immediately write this off as tens of thousands of cases of minor lapses in judgment rather than one of the most horrible moral crimes of all time?

There is no greater disrespect for a holocaust victim than this.

REVISIONISTS AND DENIERS

Two thousand people in Europe are in prison today for questioning some part, no matter how minor, of the holocaust.

The official story of the holocaust is a compendium of testimony of several hundred thousand people as there was little physical evidence left at the end of the war.

Some facilities were reconstructed based on testimony, for historical perspective but in general, it is believed that the Germans destroyed all evidence of death camps and mass graves when they learned they were losing the war.

Thousands of those who find this explanation unsatisfactory and had chosen to disagree, some noted historians, some scientists and some simple troublemakers and activists, have been imprisoned.

At the trials, holocaust victims claimed that such questioning harmed them irreparably.

However, not one holocaust victim has ever spoken up about the endless numbers of phony holocaust victims who besmirch them every day and have for nearly 65 years.

Why is that?

One thing the revisionists claim is that almost every story from the holocaust, including notable books and even world famous holocaust survivors are, in actuality, the worst phonies of all.

The analogy of the “phony veteran” is applicable here.

After each war, endless numbers of those, who for reasons legitimate or not, felt their contribution to the war effort was less than honorable or noteworthy, claim accomplishments they are undeserving of.

It is also known that combat veterans are seldom seen on bar stools at service organizations talking about heroic exploits.

In fact, as Americans are learning more and more each day, combat veterans have great difficulty surviving coming home and are often homeless, incarcerated and commit suicide in huge numbers.

It would be easy to extrapolate the same for holocaust survivors.

There is no greater potential cause of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder in the history of mankind than the concentration camps of World War 2.

Not only would survivors kill themselves out of guilt, most would suffer greatly shortened lifespan.

This has been amazingly well documented.

This being the case, only a few hundred-holocaust survivors could be alive today, not the one million living in Israel.

HONESTY AND TRUTH

Anyone imprisoned wrongly, anyone whose family was killed or whose assets were seized illegally, should be compensated.

Anyone wrongly claiming to be part of a group they are not, one this unique in the history of mankind deserves punishment.

Why is this not done?

Why is there no normal social pressure to “out” these people and defend the honor of holocaust survivors?

Has anyone ever asked a real holocaust survivor what it is like to see phonies continually on television talking about the holocaust?

Do they forgive?

We will never know, as it seems nobody cares about real holocaust survivors.

The holocaust is brought up when Israel bombs a school or asks for foreign aid but as for the people themselves, these misuses of the suffering of some cheapen human misery and the human condition.

NEVER AGAIN, WHAT DOES IT REALLY MEAN?

If one child was taken away, died in a gas chamber, typhus, shot, it doesn't matter, one life, this is a holocaust.

If it was done because of race, the crime is doubly evil in nature.

The lesson of “never again” was meant to be a lesson for all mankind to treat every single life with the same honor and respect, not to use the suffering of some as an excuse for financial crime, self delusion or outrageous acts of aggression.

Instead, the holocaust has become theatre, a stage for two sides to debate, to play, to “lawyer” the world to death.

Some feel they should fight the holocaust because it has become a tool of evil.

Some defend it because it is a tool of evil also but they believe the world is evil and only evil men are meant to survive.

Picture the death of a single child.

Then go to the trial of a "holocaust denier."

Who is evil?

Who is good?

Do any of them ever think of the single child or only how it died, who signed what or how many Palestinian children could be murdered just like that child, in that child's name perhaps?

THE REAL WAR

Why ask the question if 6 million Jews died?

It is equally possible that 6 million Germans died in the Ukraine and Europe, not soldiers, not in air raids, but in holocaust type extinction.

This is not talked of but it happened.

All of us, Jews, Germans, the west, all of us, were silent when Josef Stalin killed twice that number or more.

It started before the war and continued after.

The human suffering caused by Stalin was immeasurable but is never spoken of, barely touched on except by Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn and now his books are banned.

They fail to conform to popular mythology.

There was nothing pure about the real war as there is nothing pure about wars today.

The myths we may or may not make up to protect some are never really to protect anyone.

The weak and vulnerable are never protected, only the powerful.

This is how the powerful become such and remain that way.

We are such liars.

Nobody ever cared about the holocaust survivors only what using their suffering would bring in honor and riches?

Is this the truth?

Is this the partial truth?

Has anyone asked the hard questions, the real questions?

Isn't it time that all the survivors got together?

Some voice is needed, a voice that can say "never again" with authority.

But.."never again"...what?

Zion's Big Lie The "Six Million" Myth

"The First Holocaust" by Don Heddesheimer is a critical work documenting the continuous Jewish attempts at floating out Holocaust propaganda before, during and after World War One, often invoking the magical "6,000,000" figure and using the term "Holocaust".

Of course, these clever propagandists have since accomplished their goal of establishing the outrageous myth of the Jewish Holocaust™ in the public consciousness following the end of WW2.

In large part due to fictional Hollywood movies like "Shindler's List" from that lying venomous worm, Steven Spielberg. Read The First Holocaust

Why the number "Six Million"?

YOU SHALL RETURN

In the days when slavery existed, the Torah decreed that there must come a time when every man goes free. Even those who resold themselves after six years of servitude, and had their ears pierced for voluntary enslavement, could not remain beyond the time of the Jubilee.

וּקְרַשְׁתֶּם אֶת שְׁנַת הַחֲמִישִׁים שָׁנָה וּקְרַאֲתֶם דְּרֹר בְּאֶרֶץ
לְכָל־יֹשְׁבֵיהָ יוֹבֵל הוּא תִּהְיֶה לָכֶם

"And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty
throughout the land unto all the inhabitants thereof."

[Leviticus 25:10]

These are the words chosen to be inscribed on the Liberty Bell. It is in the Jubilee year that "ye shall return every man unto his possession and ye shall return every man unto his family."

The Hebrew word for "ye shall return," תָּשׁוּבוּ (TaShuVU), seems to be spelled incorrectly. Grammatically it requires another ו (vav). It ought to read תָּשׁוּבוּ (TaShUVU).

Why is it lacking the letter ו (vav), which stands for 6? תָּשׁוּבוּ (without the "vav") is a prediction to the Jewish people of ultimate return to their national homeland. תָּשׁוּבוּ in numbers adds up to 708: ת (tav) = 400, ש (shin) = 300, כ (vet) = 2, ו (vav) = 6. When we write the year, we ignore the millennia. In 1948 on the secular calendar, we witnessed the miracle of Jewish return to Israel. On the Hebrew calendar it was the year 5708. That was the year pre-

As documented in the book The First Holocaust, the Zionists have continuously and hysterically attempted to claim that six million Jews were dead, dying or in grave danger in Europe and Russia since the late 1800's.

Any time there was turmoil in Europe, albeit turmoil often instigated by Jews in the first place, prominent Zionist figures and Jewish-controlled media organizations world wide continuously whipped up a frenzy with phony sob stories to get people to feel sorry for Europe's Jews and donate money to Jewish charities.

It turns out that this mythical six million figure, long since discredited even by mainstream Holohoax historians, comes from a Jewish-Talmudic religious myth that says "ye shall return minus six million" or "you shall return to the land of Israel with six million less", and of course WW2 birthed the modern state of Israel which was established in 1948.

Israeli Jews often excuse their systematic genocide of Palestinians and theft of Palestinian lands by bringing up the so-called Holocaust™ of WW2, which any serious researcher and critical thinker knows by now is a fraud of colossal proportions.

The Zionists have so much influence that they turned a delusional Jewish religious prophecy into "historical fact".

JUNE 11, 1900 - NEW YORK TIMES - page 7 - Rabbi Wise's Address

"There are 6,000,000 living, bleeding, suffering arguments in favor of Zionism."

RABBI WISE'S ADDRESS.

Rabbi Wise said, in part:

"The day will never come when I will care less for Zion, when there will be any one who will strive more for the glorious ideals of Zionism.

"Two great conventions of Jews are being held to-night. In Chicago there is a conference of charities called together by men who minister to the wants of the poor. They have assembled to see that too much charity is not given to the unworthy. Their purpose is right. But ours is the greater charity. We have assembled not to see that the Jew does not get too much, but that every Jew shall get the right to live.

"There are 6,000,000 living, bleeding, suffering arguments in favor of Zionism. They come not to beg, but ask for that which is higher than all material things. They seek to have satisfied the unquenchable thirst after the ideal. They ask to become once again the messengers of right, justice, and humanity.

"Your Christian friends will honor you if you have enough self-respect to care for your own people. Say that you are not a Jew, and you will be hated as a Jew, nevertheless. But say that you are an American Jew, and strive for the best principles of the race, you will be respected and the Zionist name honored.

"Of Israel and Zion one thing is true. They can conquer. God is our leader, and with the General of the heavenly hosts to lead who will say that we go not to victory?

"In the old Greek games, the man who won the race was not he who went fastest, but the one who bore a lighted torch to the end of the course.

"We Zionists have entered a race, the torch of liberty, charity, and justice in our hands.

"The race will be won, not because we are fastest but because that lamp is a light unto the world. It will never be extinguished.

"Come, brethren, the lamp is in your hands; run the race and may God give you the victory forever."

Other speakers were Dr. M. Mintz, Dr. Robert L. Halperin of Chicago, and the Rev. Dr. B. Drachman.

The Zion hymn by the Rev. Dr. H. Pereira Mendes, was sung at the conclusion of the speaking. The band of the Hebrew Sheltering Guardian Society Orphan Asylum, under direction of I. L. Fauerbach, played a number of selections.

1902- The tenth edition of Encyclopedia Britannica (under its entry on 'anti-semitism') references "six million Jews" of Rumania and Russia being "systematically degraded"

10th Edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica (1902) Entry for 'Antisemitism'

While the main activity of anti-Semitism has manifested itself in Germany, Russia, Rumania, Austria-Hungary and France, its vibratory influences have been felt in other countries when conditions favourable to its extension have presented themselves. In England more than one attempt to acclimatize the doctrines of Marr and Treitschke has been made. The circumstance that at the time of the rise of German anti-Semitism a premier of Hebrew race, Lord Beaconsfield, was in power first suggested the Jewish bogey to English political extremists. The Eastern crisis of 1876-1878, which was regarded by the Liberal party as primarily a struggle between Christianity, as represented by Russia, and a degrading Semitism, as represented by Turkey, accentuated the anti-Jewish feeling, owing to the anti-Russian attitude adopted by the government. Violent expression to the ancient prejudices against the Jews was given by Sir J. G. Tollemache Sinclair (A Defence of Russia, 1877). Mr T. P. O'Connor, in a life of Lord Beaconsfield (1878), pictured him as the instrument of the Jewish people, "moulding the whole policy of Christendom to Jewish aims." Professor Goldwin Smith, in several articles in the Baron de Hirsch founded a colossal scheme for transplanting persecuted Jews to new countries under new conditions of life, and endowed it with no less a sum than £9,000,000 (see HIRSCH, MAURICE DE).

Though anti-Semitism has been unmasked and discredited, it is to be feared that its history is not yet at an end. While there remain in Russia and Rumania over six millions of Jews who are being systematically degraded, and who periodically overflow the western frontier, there must continue to be a Jewish question in Europe; and while there are weak governments, and ignorant and superstitious elements in the enfranchized classes of the countries affected, that question will seek to play a part in politics.

LITERATURE.—No impartial history of modern anti-Semitism has yet been written. The most comprehensive works on the subject, Judaism among the Nations, by A. Leroy-Beaulieu (1893), and L'Antisemitisme, son histoire et ses causes, by Bernard Lazare (1894), are collections of studies rather than histories. M. Lazare's work will be found most useful by the student on account of its detached standpoint and its valuable bibliographical notes. A good list of works relating to Jewish ethnography will be found at the end of M. Isidor Loeb's valuable article, "Juifs," in the Dictionnaire universel de géographie (1884). To these should be added, Adolf

END OF ZIONISM, MAYBE.

Jewish Preacher's View of Uprising in Russia.

The Rev. Dr. M. H. Harris spoke in the Temple Israel, Fifth Avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street, yesterday morning at the regular services on the "Russian Situation." He prefaced his remarks by reference to the Testaments and to history to show that the people had gradually received a larger sphere of freedom from nations and Governments for the exercise of their powers and duties.

He declared that a free and a happy Russia, with its 6,000,000 Jews, would possibly mean the end of Zionism, since the abolition of the autocracy would practically eliminate the causes that brought Zionism into existence.

Russia, he said, seemed to prefer its own bloody experience in learning the power of the people to profiting by the experience and the history of other nations.

1906- A Jewish publicist cries wolf to (ironically enough) GERMANY that there was an impending Holocaust of "six million Jews" in Russia during the aftermath of the first Communist uprising there.

This lame sob story was nothing more than a ploy to cover up the fact that the Communist uprising that took place in Russia a year earlier (1905) was the handiwork of his fellow Jews who perpetrated widespread atrocities against Russian patriots (anti-Communists) who didn't want a despotic Judeo-Bolshevist government.

Dr. Paul Nathan's View of Russian Massacre

STARTLING reports of the condition and future of Russia's 8,000,000 Jews were made on March 12 in Berlin to the annual meeting of the Central Jewish Relief League of Germany by Dr. Paul Nathan, a well-known Berlin publicist, who has returned from an extensive trip through Russia as the special emissary of Jewish philanthropists in England, America, and Germany, to arrange for distribution of the relief fund of $1,500,000 raised after the massacres last Autumn.

Dr. Nathan paints a horrifying picture of the plight and prospects of his coreligionists, and forecasts at any hour renewed massacres exceeding in extent and terror all that have gone before. He left St. Petersburg with the firm conviction that the Russian Government's studied policy for the "solution" of the Jewish question is systematic and murderous extermination.

Dr. Nathan read to the meeting a circular addressed to the garrison of Odessa, calling upon the soldiers to "rise and crush the traitors who are plotting to upset the holy Government of the Czar and substitute for it a Jewish empire." →

He concluded with an appeal to the Jewish money powers of the world to arrest Russia's career as a borrower. The financiers of the world should call a halt to Russia, not only for humanitarian reasons, but for practical reasons. Russia's bankruptcy is an established fact, he added.

FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE

NOVEMBER 13, 1910

RUSSIA

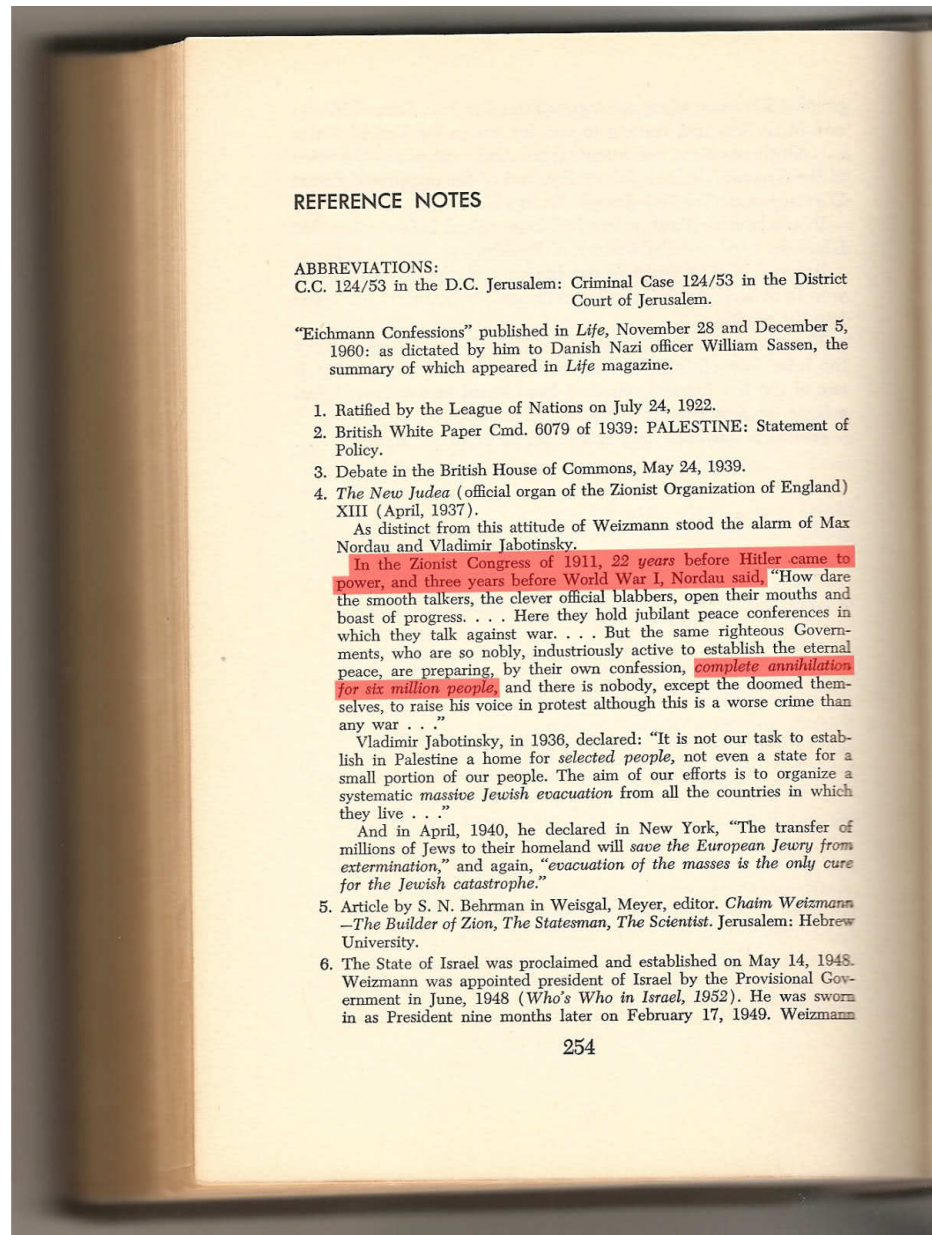

The position of our co-religionists in Russia grows increasingly deplorable, and recent advices from that country indicate that there is little likelihood of any relief being afforded.

The situation is of the gravest. It may be doubted whether Jewry has ever confronted a greater crisis since the overthrow of the Jewish state by the Roman Empire. Not even the horrible persecutions of the times of the Crusades or the expulsion from Spain and Portugal affected so large a mass of our co-religionists.

Russia has since 1890 adopted a deliberate plan to expel or exterminate six millions of its people for no other reason than that they refuse to become members of the Greek Church, but prefer to remain Jews.

To carry out this purpose, it has used several methods. Wholesale assassinations (called pogroms), have been employed in order to arouse the religious fanaticism, the greed, and the savagery of the needy, the ignorant and the depraved among the Russian people. Horrible as these pogroms are, their effects are trivial compared with those which have followed other methods countenanced by that Government. The Jewish inhabitants of the congested Pale of Settlement are being harassed by restrictions on their ordinary activities, by practical denial to a serious extent of the right to educate their children, and by having thrust upon them by force, large numbers of their co-religionists who had settled in other places within the Empire and had there been usefully employed. By this insidious process, the Russian Government wickedly and artificially creates unnatural conditions that enable it to twist economic and social laws into the service of persecution, and it believes that by their operation the ultimate expulsion or destruction of the Jews of Russia is assured. From the point of view of that Government, this method has the further advantage that it avoids the cry of horror 1911- Max Nordau, co-founder of the World Zionist Organization together with Theodore Herzl, warns of the "annihilation of six million people" at the Zionist congress in Basle, Switzerland. This was 22 years before Hitler came to power and 3 years before WW1 started.

Foreign Office,
November 2nd, 1917.

Dear Lord Rothschild,

I have much pleasure in conveying to you, on behalf of His Majesty's Government, the following declaration of sympathy with Jewish Zionist aspirations which has been submitted to, and approved by, the Cabinet

'His Majesty's Government view with favour the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people, and will use their best endeavours to facilitate the achievement of this object. it being clearly understood that nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine, or the rights and political status enjoyed by Jews in any other country.'

I should be grateful if you would bring this declaration to the knowledge of the Zionist Federation.

The Balfour Declaration

This same year radical Jewish Marxists, led by the Jew Leon Trotsky (real name: Lev Bronstein), financed by so-called "capitalist" Jewish international bankers Schiff, Warburg and Rothschild, violently take over Russia and establish the first Zionist state, the 'Soviet Union'.

Czar Nicholas II, his wife and daughters, are kidnapped & murdered.

The Communist Jews would go on a 60 plus year reign of terror slaughtering some 40-60 million Russian and Eastern European Gentiles in Gulags, death camps and by artificial famines.

1918- The British take control of Palestine, and occupy the country militarily. Eventually the British Mandate for Palestine is administered, against the will of the Arabs living there.

1919- Shortly after WW1 Jews claim a Holocaust of "six million Jews". It doesn't fly too far, nobody buys it.

The Crucifixion of Jews Must Stop!

By MARTIN H. GLYNN
(Former Governor of the State of N. Y.)

From across the seas six million men and women call to us for help, and eight hundred thousand little children cry for bread.

These children, these men and women are our fellow-members of the human family, with the same claim on life as we, the same susceptibility to the winter's cold, the same propensity to death before the fangs of hunger. Within them reside the illimitable possibilities for the advancement of the human race as naturally would reside in six million human beings. We may not be their keepers but we ought to be their helpers.

In the face of death, in the throes of starvation there is no place for mental distinctions of creed, no place for physical differentiations of race. In this catastrophe, when six million human beings are being whirled toward the grave by a cruel and relentless fate, only the most idealistic promptings of human nature should away the heart and move the hand.

Six million men and women are dying from lack of the necessities of life; eight hundred thousand children cry for bread. And this fate is upon them through no fault of their own, through no transgression of the laws of God or man; but through the awful tyranny of war and a bigoted lust for Jewish blood.

In this threatened holocaust of human life, forgotten are the niceties of philosophical distinction, forgotten are the differences of historical interpretation; and the determination to help the helpless, to shelter the homeless, to clothe the naked and to feed the hungry becomes a religion at whose altar men of every race can worship and women of every creed can kneel. In this calamity the temporalities of man's fashionings fall away before the eternal verities of life, and we awaken to the fact that from the hands of one God we all come and before the tribunal of one God we all must stand on the day of final reckoning. And when that reckoning comes mere profession of lips will not weigh a pennyweight; but deeds, mere intangible deeds, deeds that dry the tear of sorrow and allay the pain of anguish, deeds that with the spirit of the Good Samaritan pour oil and wine in wounds and find sustenance and shelter for the suffering and the stricken, will outweigh all the stars in the heavens, all the waters in the seas, all the rocks and metals in all the celestial globes that revolve in the firmament around us.

Race is a matter of accident; creed, partly a matter of inheritance, partly a matter of environment, partly one's method of rationalization; but our physical wants and corporeal needs are implanted

WHITTIER ?

In all of us by the hand of God, and the man or woman who can, and will not, hear the cry of the starving; who can, and will not, take heed of the wail of the dying; who can, and will not, stretch forth a helping hand to those who sink beneath the waves of adversity is an assassin of nature's finest instincts, a traitor to the cause of the human family and an abjurer of the natural law written upon the tablets of every human heart by the finger of God himself.

And so in the spirit that turned the poor widow's votive offering of copper into silver, and the silver into gold when placed upon God's altar, the people of this country are called upon to sanctify their money by giving $35,000,000 in the name of the humanity of Moses to six million famished men and women.

Six million men and women are dying—eight hundred thousand little children are crying for bread.

And why?

Because of a war to lay Autocracy in the dust and give Democracy the sceptre of the Just.

And in that war for democracy 200,000 Jewish lads from the United States fought beneath the Stars and Stripes. In the 77th Division alone there were 14,000 of them, and in Argonne Forest this division captured 54 German guns. This shows that at Argonne the Jewish boys from the United States fought for democracy as Joshua fought against the Amalekites on the plains of Abraham. In an address on the so-called "Lost Battalion," led by Colonel Whittlesley of Pittsfield, Major-General Alexander shows the fighting stuff these Jewish boys were made of. In some way or another Whittlesley's command was surrounded. They were short of rations. They tried to get word back to the rear telling of their plight. They tried and they tried, but their mess never got through. Paralysis and stupefaction and despair were in the air. And when the hour was darkest and all seemed lost, a soldier lad stepped forward, and said to Col. Whittlesley: "I will try to get through." He tried, he was wounded, he had to creep and crawl, but he got through. To-day he wears the Distinguished Service Cross and his name is ABRAHAM KROTOSHINSKY.

Because of this war for Democracy six million Jewish men and women are starting across the seas; eight hundred thousand Jewish babies are crying for bread,

NEW YORK, October 18.—Terrible as conditions have been for the last five years among the destitute Jews of Eastern Europe, they have never before been so appalling as they are at the present moment. With the coming of winter the climax of tragedy has been reached, according to the latest reports from American Jewish relief workers, in every part of these stricken countries. At no time since hostilities ceased has the suffering been so intense as it is now among the Jews in these unfortunate lands. Six million Jews, out of the 16,000,000 in the world, or considerably more than a third of the entire Jewish race, are today standing in bread lines or getting the soup on which they live from the soup kitchens of the Joint Distribution Committee of American Funds for Jewish War Sufferers.

Mass Meeting Hears That 127,000
Jews Have Been Killed and 6,000,000 Are in Peril.

The Federation of Ukrainian Jews in America, an organization said to represent three-quarters of a million Ukrainians in this country, decided at a convention yesterday that the massacre of their brethren in Eastern Europe must finally be stopped, and, to bring about this peace, the aid of the United States Government will be utilized. Secretary of State Lansing, it was asserted, has already given the consent of the State Department for the federation to send a commission to Ukraine to investigate the conditions of the Jews there, and to establish direct connection between them and their relatives in America.

The convention was held at the Broadway Central Hotel, at Broadway and Third Street, and was attended by more than 800 persons, representing 300 branches of the organization in this country and Canada. Joseph Seft, the President, was Chairman. Addressees were delivered by the Rev. M. Kanewsky, Rabbi Z. Maslansky, Jacob Adler, Herman Bernstein, Dr. Samuel Bucher, Rabbi Meier Berlin, Mordecai Danzels, the Executive Secretary of the society, and others.

Tales of massacres in which 127,000 Jews had either been killed or wounded during the last six months were told by the speakers, and all of them, speaking in English, Yiddish, Polish, or Russian, pointed out the disgrace of these pogroms upon twentieth century civilization.

The matter of relief was taken up, and it was decided that the Federation of Ukrainian Jews request this Government to lift the blockade so that food and funds may be sent to their destitute relatives in Eastern Europe. The President reported that there were 3,000,000 Jews in Ukraine and a like number in Poland, all of whom were in need of assistance from America.

Before Ukraine should be recognized by America or any of the other allies, it was said that she should first desist from her persecutions of innocent Jews. Until the commission which is to be appointed shall have reported that the Jews are actually receiving equal rights, friendly relations should not be made, it was urged.

The commission, which will probably consist of ten of the leading Ukrainians in America, is to work out a memorandum of the conditions in Eastern Europe, which will be sent to President Wilson, Secretary Lansing, and to all Senators and Congressmen.

An information bureau will also be established by the organization to take care of the reports of the commissioners on the other side, and to send the facts to the press of this country. The Federation also aims to act as the link joining the Ukrainians in this country with their relatives and friends in their native land.

Demonstration mass-meetings similar to the one which took place at Madison Square Garden some time ago will be held in every important city in the United States, as the beginning of a protest movement to put an end to the pogroms across the seas.

When the question of appointing a commission was proposed Reuben Pink, the representative of the society at Washington, said that he had seen Secretary Lansing during the week and that he received Mr. Lansing's consent that the delegation be sent over.

"We come out now before the world with the determined slogan. These pogroms must stop," said the President in his annual message. "It is only a question of holding these facts continually before the civilized world: we must not permit the world to slumber. This fact that the population of 8,000,000 souls in Ukraine and in Poland have received notice through action and by word that they are going to be completely exterminated—this fact stands before the whole world as the paramount issue of the present day."

BERLIN, July 19.—Russia's 6,000,000 Jews are facing extermination by massacre. As the famine is spreading, the counter-revolutionary movement is gaining and the Soviet's control is waning. This statement is borne out by official documents presented to the Berlin Government, which show that numerous pogroms are raging in all parts of Russia

1932- Jews perpetrate genocide.

The Jewish-dominated Soviet Secret Police (NKVD), led by Bolshevik Jews Kaganovich, Yagoda, Beria, etc, orchestrate an artificial famine in the Ukraine to put down nationalist resistance to a Bolshevik takeover, on orders of Stalin.

The result is 7 million dead Ukrainian men, women and children.

It is now known as the "Holodomor".

SIX MILLION PERISH IN SOVIET FAMINE

Peasants' Crops Seized, They and Their Animals Starve

Like harvesters, two peasant women garner harvest of grain sown in seed. They must do this to keep alive in a land of plenty—the Ukraine—where 6,000,000 children, women and men have died of starvation. The women were permitted, as a great privilege, to pick the kernels.

Russia's beautiful thoroughbred horses, known the world over, are used now in the agricultural districts. The animals, needed on every farm, are dying off by the million of starvation. Ten million died in a few years. Here one horse is shown, another in too weak to stand. Peasants beg for food to save their livestock were driven off by armed soldiers.

Reporter Risks Life to Get Photographs Showing Starvation

STARVATION stalks through the Ukraine section of Soviet Russia, leaving a ghastly trail of death and agony. The Ukraine is the most fertile grain-producing district in Russia.

The facts contained in the series of articles, of which this is the first, were obtained by Thomas Walker, an American newspaperman, now resident in London, at the peril of his life.

When Mr. Walker entered Russia last Spring he smuggled in a camera.

While the photographs shown with these articles were obtained under the most adverse and dangerous possible circumstances, the evidence they present is more grim and graphic than words.

By THOMAS WALKER,

Noted Journalist and Traveler and Student of Russian Affairs. Who for Several Years Has Trained the Union of Soviet Republics.

I HAVE recently toured the Ukraine district of Soviet Russia, where 6,000,000 peasants have perished from starvation in the past eighteen months, due to the excessive tolls made on their crops by the Bolshevik government.

Last Winter, Red Army soldiers, under orders from Moscow, took so much of the season's crops from the peasants that they were unable to feed themselves and their livestock through the Winter.

Photographs accompanying this series of articles were taken at the peril of my life. I was in my pocket, fortunately, I was not arrested, I have every valuable camera before me.

The bodies of the dead are everywhere. In the Ukraine, the bodies of the dead are everywhere. In the Ukraine, the bodies of the dead are everywhere.

In his article describing the enforced famine in the Ukraine, Thomas Walker tells of finding this little Russian peasant boy standing beside his dying father and weeping bitterly. The father had been shot for approaching too closely to forbidden territory while the two were picking up grains of wheat spilled on the ground. Now the boy must wander alone, almost certainly to die of starvation.

This act of treachery leads to Jews being declared "enemies of the state" by the Nazis and eventually interned in camps during WW2. Almost the same thing happened to Japanese-Americans after Pearl Harbour. Although, unlike the Jews, Japanese people never waged an economic war on America, they were interned simply for their race.

1936- It is reported in the New York Times that Zionist groups were making hysterical pleas to American Christian leaders and organizations as well as to the British government to aid the creation of a "Jewish nation in Palestine" to save the Jews from "the European Holocaust".

This was even prior to the creation of the Jewish ghettos, let alone concentration camps, and over three years before WW2 commenced.

AMERICANS APPEAL FOR JEWISH REFUGE

Pro-Palestine Federation Asks
Britain to Take a Strong
Course in Holy Land.

AIMS OF MANDATE CITED

Petition Urges It Be Made
Clear to 'Turbulent Element'
That These Will Be Carried Out.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—A petition addressed to Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin expressive of the hope that Great Britain will steer a course favoring the establishment of a free Jewish nation in Palestine such as would provide refuge for millions of persecuted Jews in Eastern Europe and Germany was presented to Sir Ronald Lindsay, the British Ambassador, today by a Christian delegation representing the Pro-Palestine Federation of America and headed by the Right Rev. James P. Freeman, Episcopal Bishop of Washington.

The petition, in expressing the opinion of enlightened Christian leadership in the United States, favoring a large Jewish immigration into Palestine, stressed the intolerable sufferings of the millions of Jews in "the European holocaust."

Urges Definite Policy

It suggested the need for a clear and definite policy on the part of the British Government in the carrying out of the stipulations of the Palestine mandate.

The "sincere belief" was voiced that, in a time when bigotry and prejudice seem to have engulfed a major portion of the civilized world, the Anglo-Saxon community of nations is called upon to blaze the trail for the dawn of a new era of freedom, justice and human enlightenment.

The petition was signed by Samuel Hadden Church, president of Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Dr. S. Parker Cadman, president of the Union of Congregational Churches in America; Ivan Lee Holt, president of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ, St. Louis; Mr. Frederick B. Robinson, president of City College, New York; John Haynes Holmes, Community Church, New York; W. R. Hopkins, City Manager, Cleveland, Ohio, and George Gordon Zetzel, New York.

The Pro-Palestine Federation of America is a national organization of American Christian sympathizers and supporters of the Jewish national home cause, with offices at 207 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Text of Petition

The text of the petition follows:

The plight of millions of human beings in Eastern Europe and Germany has stirred the conscience of enlightened mankind. More compassion and commiseration with the sufferings of these victims of prejudice and persecution, however, are not enough.

Bold practical measures to save these unfortunate millions from total annihilation are now called for. It is the consensus of enlightened Christian American opinion that God has bestowed upon England one of the greatest missions in human history—the salvation of Israel and restoration to its ancient patrimony. Great Britain has it within her power to throw open the gates of Palestine and let in the victimized and persecuted Jews escaping from the European holocaust.

Enlightened Christian opinion in America is now eager to see the provisions of the Palestine mandate carried out. It is eager to see the settling of the Jews in the land facilitated in accordance with the stipulations of the mandate. Above all it would welcome the removal of any impediments and obstructions to the social-economic development of the country, which ultimately and prematurely projects of self-government would cause, in the present condition of the country.

Recognizes Problems

We are mindful of the complex and difficult task faced by His Majesty's government in Palestine. We also appreciate the anxiety and sincerity with which the Palestine Government is grappling with the problems there. We, however, feel that the right solution calls for a definite policy, which should, once and for all, make clear to the turbulent element in Palestine that His Majesty's government, as mandatory power, will carry out its trust to help transform Palestine into a Jewish homeland to which the persecuted Jews of the world may freely come, and where they may have the right to constitute themselves into a free nation.

It is our fond hope and sincere belief that in the present grave world emergency, when the dark spectre of bigotry and prejudice seems to have engulfed a major portion of the civilized world, the Anglo-Saxon community of nations is called upon to blaze the trail for the dawn of a new era of freedom, justice and human enlightenment. The restoration of the land of Israel to the children of Israel is the guiding star in this great struggle for a better world and a better humanity.

Geneva, August 7.—Delegates of 32 countries representing six or seven million of the 16,000,000 Jews in the world arrived for the first world conference opening here tomorrow night, Dr. Stephen S. Wise, its president, told the press at a reception today.

He believed 250 of the 300 delegates named would attend and held the assembly to be "the first and most representative of its kind in Jewish history."

Dr. Wise defined the Congress as "an expression of the will of Jews from many lands earnestly to consider and publicly to discuss their common problems, to submit these to the non-Jewish world for understanding and co-operation and to the Jewish people for solution."

JEWISH CONGRESS GATHERS IN GENEVA

Delegates of 32 Nations Represent Six Million Hebrews

DISCUSS RACE PROBLEMS

Will Form Permanent Organization and Treat Immediately More Pressing Questions, President Says

By CLARENCE K. STREET
(Wardens to The New York Times and The Gazette.)

Geneva, August 7.—Delegates of 32 countries representing six or seven million of the 10,000,000 Jews in the world arrived for the first world conference opening here tomorrow night, Dr. Stephen S. Wise, its president, told the press at a reception today.

He believed 250 of the 300 delegates named would attend and the assembly to be "the first and most representative of its kind in Jewish history."

Dr. Wise defined the Congress as "an expression of the will of Jews from many lands coming to understand and discuss their common problems, to submit their views on the Jewish world for understanding and co-operation and to the Jewish people for solution."

His statement suggested that the Congress's work will be two-fold. First, to constitute a permanent world organization of that portion of the Jews which believe in such organization.

Second, to treat immediately the more pressing of the questions for which the organization is being formed, such as the Palestinian and German problems.

Leon Kibetski of Belgium will present on Monday a proposal for constitution of the Congress permanently. Since those Jews who oppose this method of treating the Jewish question are taking no part in the congress its organizers say they expect most of the debate will center on the second point.

NOT A PARLIAMENT.

"I must make clear that the 'World Jewish Congress,' Dr. Wise said, 'is not parliament or an attempt at parliament, that it is nothing more than an assembly of representatives of those Jews who choose to associate themselves in defense of Jewish status. It is not easy to estimate how many Jews will be represented at the Congress but we believe more than one-third of the total Jews in the world will be.'"

Questions brought out that the Congress includes no delegates from the Jews in Germany and Russia. Dr. Wise said it was impossible for the former to attend safely and expressed personal hope that the latter will be represented in the future.

The only other important countries with Jewish communities which are not included among the 32 countries seem to be Holland and the Scandinavian nations. Seventy delegates are Americans.

Answering questions, Dr. Wise explained that several delegates had been possible "only in a very few countries." Emphasizing that the congress did not pretend to represent all Jews, he said:

"There are many Jews in the world, too many Jews who do not want the Jewish congress, too many who believe that Jewish questions can be better solved by charity petitions and other existing ways."

The Executive Committee decided today to propose that the congress establish its main committee, namely political, anti-semitic, defense, boycott, economic, finance, and non-mission. The organization hopes to adjourn Friday.

NOT A PARLIAMENT.

"I must make clear that the 'World Jewish Congress,' Dr. Wise said, 'is not parliament or an attempt at parliament, that it is nothing more than an assembly of representatives of those Jews who choose to associate themselves in defense of Jewish status. It is not easy to estimate how many Jews will be represented at the Congress but we believe more than one-third of the total Jews in the world will be.'"

QUESTIONS BROUGHT OUT THAT THE CONGRESS INCLUDES NO DELEGATES FROM THE JEWS IN GERMANY AND RUSSIA. DR. WISE SAID IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE FOR THE FORMER TO ATTEND SAFELY AND EXPRESSED PERSONAL HOPE THAT THE LATTER WILL BE REPRESENTED IN THE FUTURE.

The only other important countries with Jewish communities which are not included among the 32 countries seem to be Holland and the Scandinavian nations. Seventy delegates are Americans.

Answering questions, Dr. Wise explained that several delegates had been possible "only in a very few countries." Emphasizing that the congress did not pretend to represent all Jews, he said:

"There are many Jews in the world, too many Jews who do not want the Jewish congress, too many who believe that Jewish questions can be better solved by charity petitions and other existing ways."

The Executive Committee decided today to propose that the congress establish its main committee, namely political, anti-semitic, defense, boycott, economic, finance, and non-mission. The organization hopes to adjourn Friday.

He believed 250 of the 300 delegates named would attend and the assembly to be "the first and most representative of its kind in Jewish history."

Dr. Wise defined the Congress as "an expression of the will of Jews from many lands coming to understand and discuss their common problems, to submit their views on the Jewish world for understanding and co-operation and to the Jewish people for solution."

His statement suggested that the Congress's work will be two-fold. First, to constitute a permanent world organization of that portion of the Jews which believe in such organization.

Second, to treat immediately the more pressing of the questions for which the organization is being formed, such as the Palestinian and German problems.

Leon Kibetski of Belgium will present on Monday a proposal for constitution of the Congress permanently. Since those Jews who oppose this method of treating the Jewish question are taking no part in the congress its organizers say they expect most of the debate will center on the second point.

FOUR GANG KILLINGS ROUSE FEARS IN N.Y.

Police Are Put on Alert for New Underworld War

GAMBLER IS MURDERED

Three Others Recently Found Slain in Manner Reminiscent of Prohibition Era Mob

New York, August 7.—(C)—Four recent gang killings reminiscent of the slum-bang days of the prohibition era tonight set metropolitan police on the alert for a new underworld war.

Latest victim of the hot lead that flows so freely in the days of Arthur (Doc) Schultz, Pleasantville, Vincent (Mad Dog) Coll, Jack (Legal) Diamond, and other major figures, was Daniel Dufala, 36, declared by police as a gambler.

Dufala, alias Terry Burns, was summoned from a cafe late Monday from police headquarters early today and shot four times by an unidentified assassin. He died instantly.

Assistant Chief Inspector John Lyons denied reports Dufala was slain by associates of Charles (Lucky) Luciano, convicted yesterday after serving a long term in Dannemora state prison. Lyons said the victim probably had "checked" on a gambling crib.

He was plentifully supplied with money when he answered the summons, however. A search of his pockets yielded $2,163.

More ominous were the three killings immediately preceding that of Dufala.

Pending a thorough investigation, police barred, in protective custody a 18-year-old blonde burlesque dancer, acquainted with all three victims.

They were: Edmund "Elegant Eddie" Pasch, shot to death 11 days ago in the lower East Side.

Frank Clarity, alias Frank McDonald, whose battered and trussed body was fished out of Long Island Sound on Sunday.

William Heister, stabbed 48 times in the chest and left in a trunk in a Brooklyn lot on Tuesday.

Inspector Lyons acknowledged that these three killings were linked, but said he had no information indicating the victims ever were members of the Dutch Schultz mob.

Schultz, last of the old line hoodlums to die, was chopped down by a spray of bullets in Newark last October.

His death, followed by the imprisonment of "Lucky" Luciano, left the policy, prostitution and other rackets open to anyone strong enough to organize them.

R.C.M.P. Man Finds Hermit Trapper's Body in Cabin

Rocky Mountain House, Alta., August 7.—(C)—Papers found in the little cabin in which Old Olan led a hermit-like existence for seven years tonight offered no clue to where he came from before taking to the traplines in this Northern Alberta district.

The body of the 68-year-old trapper was found by Royal Canadian Mounted Police Constable John Leyland. A diary found nearby indicated he had slowly starved to death. The entry was made on July 26, when it is believed he died.

His last batch of bread was baked on May 24, his last record. On July 16, he wrote of feeling sick and remaining in bed. "Getting weaker," he wrote the following day and on July 16 "very weak; eyes get dull."

Discovery of the trapper's death was made when Constable Leyland forced his way into the cabin after the tumble-down shanty. His food supplies were reduced to one raw potato, found in the basement.

OPPOSITION VOICED TO CANNING PLANT

Longueville Residents' Petition Promised Consideration by Pro-Mayor

Petition to the Longueville City Council against the erection of a canning factory or "any other factory in our neighborhood" was submitted at the regular monthly meeting of Council, held last night.

The reason was the application for a permit to build a "small" canning factory in the rear of No. 225 St. Alexandre avenue, which was previously placed before Council and public notice of which has been posted.

The proposed site, it is claimed, is one of the finest residential sections of the South Shore city and should be kept as a non-commercial and non-industrial location.

The petition was signed by 24 residents and proprietors in and around St. Alexandre avenue.

Council referred the petition to committee. Ald. J. Arthur Garneau, pro-Mayor, who was in the chair, promised that the matter would be given consideration. He remarked that the welfare of the city as a whole should be considered and thought it might be possible for the city to offer the applicant a lot where the erection of a canning factory would not be a nuisance.

On Monday, nomination day for Provincial elections, the City Hall will be closed at noon and all business with city officials must be completed before then, it was announced.

P. T. Lynch Addresses Meeting

Port Arthur, August 7.—(C)—Brought to Canada from Germany for use in the far north, a large seaplane landed here tonight while its occupants, Father Beaucauge and Pilot "Pat" Howard, bussed themselves with plans to continue their journey to Edmonton.

The big ship was refueled today in preparation for the flight to Winnipeg, possibly tomorrow. From the Manitoba capital a direct journey was planned to Edmonton. The plane was brought from Germany by Father Paul Schulte, O.M.I., who is working among northern Indians.

A flying schedule from Montreal came to light yesterday when it was learned that the plane was to leave for Nipigon Bay on a light from Sault Ste. Marie. Howard brought the ship down to the water's surface 70 miles east of here.

The two spent the night on the lake shore where they were found by a party of Ontario Forestry Department foresters. Arrangements were made to take them to Nipigon where sufficient fuel was secured to permit the flight here.

Concern was felt when the plane failed to arrive here on schedule. Plans were considered to send out a forestry service plane to search for the missing machine.

Father Beaucauge and Howard appeared none the worse for their experience, however, and expected to take off on the next stage of the journey tomorrow.

The plane in which Father Beaucauge is flying to Edmonton is one of two sent from Germany to the Oldies Fathers in the Arctic region by the MIVA, a German organization, headed by Rev. Paul Schulte, interested in missionary work in distant places.

The planes and Father Schulte arrived in Canada more than a month ago. On his arrival in Montreal, Father Schulte said he intended flying the first machine to Edmonton himself, there to be met by proceeding into the Arctic by McGeorge Heyval, Bishop of the Marquette.

When the plane of Father Beaucauge piloted by Pat Howard and carrying also Rev. H. Carl, German photographer and member of the MIVA, left for Edmonton, Father Schulte said he would follow in about two weeks.

Father Schulte, a wartime German flier, founded the MIVA, now reported to have more than 50,000 members who contribute for purchase and maintenance of airplanes, after the war with a friend of his, an Oldies Order priest, lost his life in Africa because of poor communications in the district where he was stationed.

The purpose of the MIVA is to provide aerial transportation for Oblate missionaries in desolate regions.

The number of Jews deprived of their rights and economic opportunity in Europe increased greatly last year, Dr Bernhard Kahn, European director of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, said on his arrival here last week from Europe.

The new Government of Rumania has threatened to outlaw 800,000 Rumanian Jews, "disregarding peace treaties, minority treaties and the constitution of the country," said Dr Kahn

"It is a matter for encouragement, however, that many outstanding personalities and some political parties in Poland are courageously raising their voices against the inhuman treatment of the Jews and the poisonous atmosphere of anti-Semitism

"In Germany the Jews are being driven out of the last economic positions. Increased oppression is swelling the number of refugees and emigrants. More than 15,000 Jews had to leave Germany during the last year and in the middle of the year the German laws of racial discrimination were extended to the 12,000 Jew in Upper Silesia (the Danzig corridor) "

Dr Kahn said there are 25,000 refugees in Europe, the greater number of them living in need and in demoralizing uncertainty. He expressed the hope that the inter-governmental conference at the League of Nations would take up the refugee problem again in February.

"Five to six million in all are today the victims of governmental anti-Semitism and policies of unchecked anti-Semitic propaganda and persecution. All these millions are in danger of losing their rights as citizens. Their economic existence is constantly menaced and for thousands upon thousands their Ready at any moment to defend the strip which he is trying to convert to fertility is the Jewish settler of the Jesreel valley.

FIVE or six million Jews, uprooted by dictatorships and tossed about by economic storms, may have to depend upon the development of the Holy Land, under British mandate, as a solution to their difficulties. But they face the hostility of the Arabs living there, whose economic and religious interests conflict with theirs.

In North Palestine the Jews fence themselves in armed settlements as a protection against marauding Arab bands, while they try to work the poor land. With Britain anxious to get rid of her mandate, and with enemies in nearly every corner of the world, these "people without a country" are in a sorry plight.

1939- Poland refuses to give back the territory stripped away from Germany at the end of WW1, namely the formerly German city of Danzig/Danzig corridor connecting the German mainland to East Prussia.

In September Poland is invaded from the west by Germany and from the east by the Soviet Union.

Britain and France declare war on Germany, supposedly because of Hitler's invasion of Poland.

However, Britain and France did not declare war on the Soviet Union, which also had invaded Poland.

How WW2 Started Dr William Luther Pierce

The reason they left the Soviet Union alone was because the Soviet Union was, for all intents and purposes, under Jewish rule.

The purpose of WW2 all along was not to free Poland but to destroy Germany, who had broken loose from the grip of the Jews.

The Allies dumped Poland, along with the rest of Eastern Europe, off to the Communist butchers at the end of the war, thus confirming Poland was nothing more than a pawn used to sucker the Third Reich into a war.

Meanwhile Jews were whining about "six million" helpless victims in February, seven months before the war even started.

Jewish Relief Appeal Starts Here Tomorrow

More than 200 volunteers will begin tomorrow a thorough canvass of St. Petersburg in behalf of the local campaign of the United Jewish Appeal for Refugees and Overseas Needs. It is the largest and most intensive drive ever conducted by American Jews for relief and reconstruction in Europe, immigration and resettlement in Palestine and integration of refugees into the life of the United States.

Milton S. Lew, chairman of the local campaign, said today that the appeal represents the greatest effort in the history of the American Jews to relieve distress abroad to provide new immigration opportunities in Palestine. "The lives of many hundreds of thousands of persecuted men, women and chil-

Appeal to All Creeds

Chairman Lew explained that the appeal will be made to all creeds and races because the agents of terror and hatred now aroused in Europe are levied against all religions in general. Once unleashed these powers cannot easily be stopped.

"Intolerance," Lew stated, "is as anti-Christian as it is anti-Jewish. The fiction of racial superiority is so alien to our American traditions that we cannot understand the callousness of many European nations toward the helpless victims. I feel that Americans of all creeds can join to prove to the world once more that while American democracy lives, humanity and compassion shall not die."

6,000,000 Helpless

Lew pointed out that there are six million Jews in Europe today fighting desperately against intolerance and despair. For them the support of the united appeal is crucial, he said.

Jacob Lestchinsky Estimates Reduction in Europe Since '39

The Jewish population in Europe has been reduced from 9,500,000 in 1939 to 3,500,000, it was estimated yesterday by Jacob Lestchinsky, exiled economist and newspaper man, in an address at the nineteenth annual conference of the Yiddish Scientific Institute. Mr. Lestchinsky, who is research secretary of the institute, spoke at the closing sessions of a three-day conference at the Hotel Park Central and attended by delegates from Jewish educational and cultural groups.

"Of the 6,000,000 European Jews who have died, 5,000,000 had lived in the countries under Hitler's occupation," he said.

Other speakers included Dr. Harry M. Orlinsky, Professor of Bible at the Jewish Institute of Religion; Prof. Abraham Heschel of Hebrew Union College, Cincinnati, and Joseph Opatoshu, vice president of the institute's executive board.

BERN, May 12 — At least one point in Adolf Hitler's "Mein Kampf" program has been carried out thoroughly — the bestial extermination of European Jews.

Of the eight million Jews living in Germany and German occupied countries before the war, 6,200,000 have died from either execution, cruel treatment or starvation, according to latest figures compiled by Jewish welfare organizations here.

500,000 Left in Reich

In Germany, where the great majority of European Jews had been concentrated, only 500,000 are alive today—and the word "alive" is a mere figure of speech. Now that the story of their suffering can be told without harming the survivors, it may be pointed out that the martyrdom of Europe's Jews ran through three phases.

The first was the period of "extermination" proper from the time of the declaration of war on Russia until the end of 1942. Millions of Jews were taken to the camps at Auschwitz, Maidanek and Treblinka which boasted the most modern gas execution chambers and crematories for bodies. The SS hordes invading Russia were instructed to shoot all Russian Jews wherever they were encountered.

The Weak Disappear

By the end of 1942, however, Germany felt the need for foreign labor and the remaining able-bodied Jews were sent to work camps. The women, old men and children all disappeared into the gas chambers.

The slavery of the able-bodied and the execution of the frail continued until the beginning of 1944, by which time the Nazis had reached the saturation point of their cruelty. More than five million Jews had been liquidated and the remaining ones were no longer regarded as a "problem," as Hitler saw it.

In addition were the transport difficulties making human ship-

The Pittsburgh Press reported on May 13, 1945 that there were 500,000 surviving Jews in Germany after the war, even though there were only 200,000 Jews in Germany before the war.

Evidently, they are pulling these numbers out of thin air.

1946- A year after the war Jews are already spouting the "six million" myth as fact.

Meanwhile... Jews today still claim "six million" even though the numbers have been officially revised downwards by several million.

6,000,000 - 3,000,000 = 6,000,000?

According to the Jews, yes.

Also in 1990 the "Nazis made Jews into soap and lampshades" charge is finally dropped by the propagandists, adding to the long list of previously dropped lies about "electroshock chambers", "steam chambers", and other ridiculous claims made during the war by the Allied-Zionist-Communist propaganda machine...

Holocaust expert rejects charge that Nazis made soap from Jews

By HENRI ORDEL
Jewish Telegraphic Agency

TEL AVIV — Professor Yehuda Bauer, head of the Hebrew University's Holocaust history department and regarded as one of the foremost researchers of the Holocaust, has denied the frequently quoted charge that the Nazis used the bodies of Jewish death camp victims to make soap.

The historical possibilities for transforming human fat into soap were not known at that time, Bauer said Sunday at a Holocaust memorial meeting for Yom Hashoah.

The camp inmates were supposed to believe any human waste about their extermination, and the Nazis were content to let them go on believing the reports, he said.

"The Nazis did enough horrible things during the Holocaust. We do not have to go on believing untrue stories," Bauer said. "Unsubstantiated rumors about the use of bodies of British soldiers to make soap had circulated during both World War I and World War II, he said.

Karel Hilberg, professor of political science at the University of Vermont and a pre-eminent historian of the Holocaust, agrees that the soap rumors, although widespread, were probably unfounded.

"There were all kinds of rumors," he said, noting that a New York Times article during the war suggested that Jews were given lethal injections before deportation and entered at the extermination camps already dead.

Other rumors speculated that Jews were killed in the Belzec camp by electrocution in water, some thought that Jews were gassed in the bath.

"All of these rumors are untrue, based on nothing at all," Hilberg said. "No evidence has turned up" to suggest that the Nazis used human fat to make soap.

In Danzig, Germany (now Gdansk, Poland), pictures of dead, heavy-set people cut into pieces and a review of soap were discovered in 1945 at the Stutthof camp. "But we don't know that the bodies were of Jews, so that the pictures and soap were not evidence," said Hilberg.

Moreover, the rumor was being circulated as early as 1942, according to documentary evidence.

"It's fairly reliable that the story was circulated, but I can't say whether or not it is true," said Hilberg.

JTA staff writer Elene Newman, in New York contributed to this report.

Human fat wasn't used by Nazis, Israel's Holocaust Museum says

Reporter
JERUSALEM

Israel's Holocaust Museum, rebutting a common belief, said yesterday that the Nazis never made soap from human fat of murdered Jews during the Second World War.

"Historians have concluded that soap was not made from human fat. When so many people deny the Holocaust ever happened, why give them something to use against the truth?" said Shmuel Krakowski of the Yad Vashem Museum.

Israeli Holocaust historian Yehuda Bauer said there is no evidence Nazi Germany used corpses for soap, although it did use skin for lampshades and hair for mattresses.

He said many Jews believed murdered families had been turned into soap because the Nazis themselves propagated the idea as "a sadistic tool for mental torture."

Yael Vahnen, the Israel Holocaust Memorial Authority, last week asked the recent statement by Professor Yehuda Bauer, an eminent Holocaust historian, that the Nazis never made soap from human fat.

No documentation exists to back up such allegations against the Nazis, Yael Vahnen indicated. Meirachem Fogel said, "There is no position Yael Vahnen has always held."

Bauer, a professor at the Hebrew University and head of the International Centre for Research on Anti-Semitism, said at Yom Hashoah in Tel Aviv, "The Nazis never made soap from human fat because they did not have such technology."

Shmuel Krakowski, archives director at Yad Vashem, explained that the reason many believed, and still believe, that the Nazis made such soap was because during the war the Germans stored rumormongers to that effect.

"What is clear is that soap was made on which the latest RSI was involved, and there was propaganda that this soap was made from Jews," said Krakowski. RSI supposedly stood for Rassenfett (Jew fat).

The Nazis did however use the skin and hair of humans to make various products, said Krakowski. Bauer said that the Nazis could not make soap and there was no need to add some allegations to their already dark record.

The revisionists estimate the combined death toll in the German camps was somewhere around 300,000 (only about half of which were Jews) based on records released by the Red Cross (who continuously inspected the Nazi camps), the Auschwitz death books released to the Soviet archives in 1990 and other evidence.

Conclusion

Oh Me!

Its any wonder these Zionist Jewish Groups have subverted Governments, Laws, Courts World Wide, they don't want the truth to get out how the Americans came to the figure of 6 Million Jews Died in the Camps because it was solely based upon Jews Screaming in somebody's face 6 Million 6 Million and if you tried to question the figure they called anybody who disagrees with them Anti – Semetic.

Other people have said it and I am saying it now this has always been about Money, Power and Setting up a World Government run by Jews from Palestine.

I hope you have enjoyed reading this book, its full of evidence and proof to show the figure of 6 Million Jews dying is lies.

"Special Project"

The Freedom Collective is working on a 8 Part Video on The Truth About Port Arthur Massacre Part 1, Part 2, Part 3 it could even work out to a 10 Part Series.

We also want to bust this case wide open, and the way we plan to do this is write to the family members of all the corrupt Tasmanian Police family's and send them evidence and proof this was a False Flag Terrorist Attack.

We are looking for a sponsor to Donate $25,000 for us to do these 10 Part Video Series also all the printing up of material, stamps and envelops to send out information to the 20 – 30 corrupt Tasmanian Police Officers familys showing and proving their beloved family member was involved in these attacks.

Sinister I know but it's the only way we are going to attack and break down the doors in this case, by going after some of these corrupt cops family's and showing them family's what their beloved Police Officer family member does in his spare time, carry out Terrorist Attacks.

Please if you would like to be this kind sponsor to Donate $25,000 To the cause you can see our Bank details above, please help if you can for us to. Credit for helping to Produce these Videos will also go into the beginning and ending of the credits for the videos.

Thanks
